Ege was in his room with Ada.
He had a new school project: "Make a survey about toys, sports, games, and hobbies."
Ege looked at Ada and said, "Ada, How can I do this project?"
Ada meowed and jumped onto the table.
"You're right! Let's start!"

Ege decided to start with toys.

He wrote down his first question:

"What is your favorite toy?"

"I'll ask Efe first," he thought. Efe had lots of toys. Ada and Ege went to Efe's house.

At Efe's house, Ege asked, "What is your favorite toy, Efe?"

Efe smiled and pointed to a doll like Ege.

"This is my favorite!"

Ege wrote the answer in his notebook. "Thanks, Efe! Do you like other toys?"

"Yes, I also like my train set," Efe said.
